Class History

In the fall of 1938, thirty-two scared but very game youngsters trudged up the steps to Miss Agnes' room. These were Marilyn Smith, LaVonna Swenehart, Anna Mae Price, Paul Leslie, Minnie Malone, Ralph Tech, Delmar Weise, Esther Omstead, LaVonna Clothier, Betty Andersen, Bill Baber, Clara Mae Mathys, LaVerne Poitevin, Maurice Rule, Beverly Smith, Robert Tillet, Jean Weber, Roberta Jean Deiber, Marty Furne, Dwayne Tech, Isabel Hunt, Connie Ahart, Vincent Ahart, Betty Jeane Stuin, Daryl Keairnes, Eddie Houston, Junior Croxell, Glen Beam, Perry Buff, Viola Jean Coburn, Clara Mae Beam, and Glen Higgins. Here we started our school life and it wasn't long until everyone had caught on to what was expected of them and some things not expected. I'm sure we will all remember kindergarten or the birthday cakes we drew on the board, and the singing of "Old Shoes, New Shoes" whenever anyone had a new pair of shoes. It was fun, too, playing the games Miss Agnes taught us and learning to read, color, and print.

We were all glad to see the end of the first year of school but before the summer ended we were eagerly awaiting the new school year. How proud we were to have desks now instead of tables! In first grade, we became even more accustomed to school life and by the time we reached second grade we were fast learning all tricks of the trade. I'm sure Connie and LaVonna will always remember the second grade and Miss Metcalf's paddle, Peppy.

In third grade, we were taught the habits of Indians and Pilgrims. Here we also learned to control our desire to whisper. Remember, Bill, when you had to go to the cloakroom? Good thing the janitor came along when he did.

Fourth grade will always be remembered because this was the year we started using ink. How proud we were that now we were trusted with ink. Our mothers didn't appreciate it very much, though, when we came home ink from head to foot.

In fifth grade, we were acquainted with "The Little Colonel" series. Also, this was the year we started our dramatic careers. The girls made up and presented a play to our class as well as other visitors. We thought we were doing something wonderful then.

In sixth grade, Miss Turnlund did her best to make us good writers, but I'm sure all high school teachers have wondered where our writing talents were by the time we got to high school.

We were very proud to have Betty Andersen represent our class in the County Spelling Bee when we were in sixth and seventh grades. Marilyn Smith represented our class when we were eighth graders.

Our grade school days came to an end when we received our eighth grade diplomas in the spring of '47. All our grade school teachers were rather sad to see us go into high school because we always supplied them with numerous fruit rolls. Our teachers through the grades were Miss Agnes, Miss McBride, Miss Metcalf, Miss Wiggins, Miss Rounds, Miss Mendenhall, Miss Turnlund, Miss Hannigan, Miss Johnson, and Mrs. Boham.

As green, but energetic, "Freshies" we entered high school in the fall of '47. On the roll call were: Virgie Adamson, Connie Ahart, Vincent Ahart, Betty Andersen, Bill Baber, Glen Beam, Carl Beymer, Franklin Bolte, John Brink, LaVonna Clothier, Leola Coburn, Viola Coburn, Duane Hard, Charlie Harder, James Houston, Daryl Keairnes, Vernon Malone, Rueben Malone, Clara Mae Mathys, LaVerne Poitevin, James Schwartz, Marilyn Smith, Norman Weed, Maxine Wright, and George Andersen, Jr. Of these twenty-five beginners, fifteen dropped out, so our graduating class now numbers ten.

Initiation was the first high spot of our high school career. The girls had to dress as boys and the boys as girls. Of course, all were plastered with lipstick. What a very funny sight we made. It was loads of fun though, and everyone enjoyed himself immensely. That night, a party was given for all Freshmen. I'm sure we'll always remember the verse on our invitations which read as follows: "Remember that the mighty Oak was once a Nut like you."

The Home Economics girls were very proud to have been chosen to give a Christmas tea. It was beautiful and under the excellent guidance of Miss Thompson, highly successful

We gave our first high school party during this year. It was a May day party and very successful.

As Sophomores, we were a little more experienced about high school ways. At first, geometry got us down but with excellent teaching we soon mastered it. This was also the year we made our favorite fairy tale into a movie and showed it to the grade kids as an English assignment.

The biggest thrill of our Sophomore year was the serving at the Junior-Senior Banquet. The theme of the banquet was a circus so the girls dressed as gypsies and the boys as clowns. It was lots of fun and no one spilled a thing. Serving at the Alumni Banquet was quite a different thing, though. Everyone's feet hurt that night!

Our Junior year was filled with excitement from the very beginning. Everyone was excited over the prospect of giving a play. When the play came and parts were given out we were all eager to begin practice. The name of our play was "Oh, Kay" and it was a mystery-comedy in three acts. I'm sure we all drove Mrs. Walters crazy for fear we wouldn't have our parts learned on time. Our play was given October 21st, and attended by a record crowd.

As soon as our play was over, we ordered our class rings. This was an event for which we had been waiting for eleven long years. To us, our rings were the most beautiful in the world and we wore them with a feeling of pride.

We took time out in the hustle and bustle of school life to choose our class motto, colors, and flowers. This took much pondering, but finally we chose "Today We Follow, Tomorrow We Lead" as our class motto; blue and white as our colors; and the gardenia as our flower. Gardenia means refinement and we thought this fitted our class very well.

This year we were giving the Junior-Senior Banquet and we wanted it to be something special that no one would soon forget. With Mrs. Smith's help, we chose as a theme "An Old-Fashioned Plantation Party." This theme went very well with the girls' beautiful formals and the boys' suits. Blue crepe paper was stretched across the gym to make sky. Silver stars and a beautiful yellow moon was then placed in the sky. Around the gym wall we put up stonewall crepe paper to represent a stone wall with hollyhocks running through it. We entered through a white picket fence covered with flowers made by the Junior girls. For nutcups, we had little brown buckets, and for favors we had little southern lady dolls for the girls and little stovepipe hats for the boys. Our programs were little books made by the class out of stiffly starched feed sacks. The Sophomores made very good negro slaves. Music was furnished throughout the evening by six of the slaves. After the banquet was over, we took everyone to Denison to a movie at the Ritz. Our banquet was a great success and we had oodles of fun preparing for it. I'm sure Mr. and Mrs. Smith will never forget taking us five Junior girls to Omaha to get materials for our banquet. In fact, we heard afterward that Mr. Smith told his eighth graders never to take a bunch of Junior girls to Omaha.

Our Senior year started out with a bang. First of all came the initiation of the Freshmen and new teachers. We had them dress as various advertisements seen in newspapers and magazines. That night a party was given for the Freshmen and fun was had by all.

The Seniors had their pictures taken the fourth of January. All were extremely happy when they discovered they didn't break the camera.

We felt very grown up indeed when we ordered our announcements and chose our caps and gowns. Our caps and gowns were blue with blue tassels.

The week of the Sectional and District tournaments were filled with excitement. Everyone admitted hoarseness and sore throats after it was all over.

Our Senior play was a great success. It was a comedy in three acts and the name was "Sally Lou." We had loads of fun preparing for it and Miss Patrick had to have a great deal of patience before it was all over.

The Seniors got an early start for their annual Sneak Day. What a day this was! We managed to hit all the high spots and after it was all over there was a bunch of pretty tired Seniors.

The banquet given by the Juniors was swell. Everyone had the best time ever!

All these things as well as others made our Senior year memorable. Remember the picnic in the park with the five Senior girls and Miss Thompson? Remember the wonderful faculty dinner given by the Senior Home Economics girls? Remember Miss Thompson treating us to pumpkin pie and whipped cream in Sociology? These things we will never forget.

Baccalaureate was held Sunday, the 13th of May, and Commencement, the 17th of May. Diplomas were handed out and as we received them our memories made us sad, and our anticipation of the future made us glad.

Our annual class day was held at the end of the year. Athletic awards were given and a special program planned.

Oh yes, through all this excitement and adventure, we did get an education. Out of our ten Seniors, eight have been on the honor roll all year. This is the highest percentage of any class in the past four years. The teachers that contributed to our intelligence were Mr. Butterworth, Miss Thompson, Mr. Baker, Miss Carter, Mr. Hughes, Mrs. Walters, Mrs. Peterson, Miss Hugron, Miss Patrick, Mr. Harrington, Mr. Elmore, Mr. and Mrs. Smith.

Of the thirty-two who started kindergarten together, eight are now graduating together. These are Marilyn Smith, Betty Andersen, Connie Ahart, Clara Mae Mathys, LaVonna Clothier, Bill Baber, Laverne Poitevin, and Glen Beam.

We, the Seniors of 1951, are filled with many pleasant memories of our school-days. As we leave D. C. H. S., our hearts are filled with sadness and we know we will never forget the pleasant associations of the past thirteen years.

Flash! Flash!

Good evening, Ladies and Gentlemen--Greetings from your reporter, Hedda Topper, who comes to you direct from Los Angeles to bring you all the news when it is news.

It's coincidental that my items tonight concern a famous group of people who were once members of the same high school class in Dow City, Iowa. They graduated from that worthy institution way back in 1951 and are now scattered far and wide to the four corners of the earth. Well, let's see what has happened to that little band of men and women in the past ten years.

Rumors are flying concerning Glen Beam, who is said to have set the date for his seventh marriage. Your reporter spoke to him just before the broadcast and he denies any intention of wedding Elizabeth Taylor, but we wonder. Glen is quite a Romeo.

The No Sleep Alarm Clock Company reports that Connie Ahart, formerly a secretary there, has been promoted to a Vice-Presidency in the organization. It's understood that Miss Ahart will be in charge of the testing laboratory. In the opinion of your reporter, a wise choice has been made, for Miss Ahart spends all of her spare time studying to get ahead. We've been expecting some signs of romance in her life but according to Miss Ahart, "I'm just not interested. My career comes first."

Mrs. LaVerne Poitevin, formerly Marilyn Smith, announced that she is giving up her career as a nurse to care for their twins, Ethel Viola and Lloyd Howard. LaVerne is now coach at Vassar College, having specialized in girls' basketball. His interest was aroused while in high school.

President Vincent Ahart took off from Las Vegas Airport yesterday on a trip to Europe to view the International situation. He will return in three days in order to attend his daughter Margaret's concert at Carnegie Hall.

I see Clara Mae Mathys has done it again. Her World Basketball Team hasn't lost a game in the last five years. Could it be her playing? It is thought that they will win the World Championship Tournament starting next week. She must have got her growth after leaving school, as she is now 7 feet and 99 hundredths inches tall.

A guest speaker next Sunday here in Los Angeles will be the Right Reverend William Baber. He is speaking at the First Methodist Church and his sermon will be on "How Young People Should Meet Temptations." His latest clean-up campaign is against the Golden Peacock where Betty Andersen has been winning national acclaim for herself as a bubble dancer in the stage show, "The Big Bubble."

Postmaster Weed announced to the "Dow City Voice" a few days ago that stamps will now be 4 1/2¢ in Dow City because of the higher cost of living. Norman is considered very influential and very distinguished, especially since he has a mustache and wears horn-rimmed glasses. His hobby is detective work. His latest triumph has been the solution of the great Dow City robbery (a mystery for 10 years).

I have a little competition in my business. A new reporter, LaVonna Clothier, has been working as a spy on the Louella Carson's show and has been offered the chance for a program and gossip column of her own. It is rumored around town that she will take it.

With this, we conclude another broadcast of "News and Views," sponsored by "Hogwash," the best mouth gargle in the mid-west. Listen to our broadcast each week, as these famous people will undoubtedly be making news in the future.

Last Will and Testament

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS:

We, the Senior Class of Dow City, Iowa, being of sound mind and disposing mind and memory, and not acting under fraud, duress, menace, or the undue influence of any person whatsoever, do make, publish, and declare this our last Will and Testament, in the manner following, that is to say:

Bill Baber wills his vocal talents to Paul Leslie and his ability to write business (?) letters to Emmett Ahart.

Norman Weed wills his knack of evading the teachers with his mischievousness to Perry Buff and Glenda's ring to Emmett Ahart.

Glen Beam wills his athletic ability to Bonnie Ahart and his nickname, "Sleepy," to Owen Leslie. To Donna Mae Brown, he leaves his ambition.

Clara Mae Mathys wills her ability to get to the study hall before the bell rings to Lois Mayne, her interest in Earling to Dolores Dryden, and her babysitting ability to Paulene Thomsen who will need it.

LaVonna Clothier wills her winning smile to Floy Baughman and Donna Hamblen. She has enough for both. She also leaves her cheerleading ability to James Trierweiler.

Marilyn Smith leaves her bashfulness to Donna Brink and her figure to Clara Mae Bramley. She also wills her singing ability to Fern Cue.

Connie Ahart wills her method of capturing and holding boy friends for Kay Lou to use on "Boogie," and her bubble gum to Mary Ann Stepanek.

Vincent Ahart wills his gift of gab to Jim Cross and his manual training to Joey Cramer. He wills his figure skating to Loraine Kolln.

Betty Andersen wills her tactful way of refraining from whispering to Alice McDonald. She wills her secret ambition (to remain single) to Mary Ellen Putnam.

LaVerne Poitevin wills his nights at Arcadia Ball Room to Roland Sharp and his art of bachelorhood to Marty Furne.

LaVonna Clothier and Clara Mae Mathys leave their lonely study hall to Duane Hard and Rosetta Brown.

To the Juniors, who with lots of good luck and industrious work may become Seniors next year, we will our nice, long, quiet evenings with Miss Thompson; our skilled workmanship in Manual Training; our long periods spent in practicing for band; our good manners in the lunch room at noon; our great acting ability; our record on the honor roll; and other abilities too numerous to mention to anyone who will take them.

School Days

These years at school, we'll never forget,
At least the very last four.
Don't think that all you do is sit,
For it amounts to plenty more.

As Freshmen, green as grass we came,
Up four flights of rugged stairs.
To seek some mischief was our aim,
But the teachers changed our dares.

Our Sophomore year was deader yet,
For studying was no thrill.
The Seniors told us not to fret,
But to stay right in the mill.

Another year soon rolled around,
And as Juniors we were delighted.
It wasn't so bad at last we found,
For we weren't as apt to be slighted.

But an honorable Senior is still the best
For the door is opened wide,
To opportunity which knocks and rests
Until a career we do decide.

So, underclassmen, do not pout
For school is not so bad.
For when it comes to getting out,
We're sure you'll all feed sad.

The Junior Class began the year with eighteen members. In the middle of the year, James Ettleman moved to Denison.

All of the girls and most of the boys went out for Glee Club. Five of the girls were in small music groups. Eight Juniors played in the band. There were six girls and four boys from our class who were on the basketball teams.

In November, the Juniors gave a Hard Times Party, which was a great success. The Junior Class Play was a comedy entitled, "The Daffy Dills." We entertained the Senior Class and Faculty at the annual Junior-Senior Banquet.

The Juniors have been very active in school activities and have given their support at the basketball games.

Sophomore Class

FIRST ROW: James Griffin, Bill Houston, Jack Thomsen, Dennis Gibson, Bryce Cross, Robert Bramley.
 SECOND ROW: Wanda Andersen, Glenda Lee Smith, Donna Lahr, Martha Rose Argotsinger, Lillian Kolln, Dolores Dryden, Patsy Riley, Rosetta Brown.
 THIRD ROW: Roland Sharp, Owen Leslie, Joan Riddle, Kay Lou Ahart, Gene Goeser, Clemet Birney, James A. Harrington-Sponsor.

Our class started the year with 25 members. We now have 23 in our class. Glen Higgins and Donald Crawford moved away.

Our class really went all out for activities. Four of our girls were on the Girls' Basketball Team. Two of our boys were on the squad, with Owen Leslie as student manager. Five girls were in small music groups. All the girls and most of the boys were in the Glee Clubs. Four boys were on the baseball team. Four members were in the band.

We thoroughly enjoyed all the parties this year.

Freshman Class

FIRST ROW: Joey Cramer, Jerry Houston, Richard Malone, Arlo McCutcheon, Paul Olson, Jackie Lambert, Leonard Mitchell, Jackie Garrett.
 SECOND ROW: Clara Mae Bramley, Bette Doidge, Barbara Ettleman, Opal Malone, Edith Wingrove, Karen Smith, Betty Brown, Mary Marshall.
 THIRD ROW: Rita Best, James Cross, Arlen Peterson, James Moore, Walter Shumate, Clifford Gorman, Eileen Birney, Mr. Murray Elmore-Sponsor.

CLASS OFFICERS

President-----James Cross
 Vice-President-----Barbara Ettleman
 Secretary and Treasurer-----Eileen Birney
 Sponsor-----Mr. Murray Elmore

Twenty-eight of us were in the class at the beginning of the year, but by the end of the semester five had gone, leaving twenty-three members.

The most exciting experience of the year was initiation. We all had fun. That night, the Seniors sponsored a party for us. It was swell.

We had seven participants in the band and two baton twirlers. Betty Doidge played the accordion, also. Karen Smith was in the Trio and everyone was in the Glee Clubs.

The Freshmen have done their part in the activities and hope to do more as the years go by.

Band Members

FIRST ROW:

Cornets: Marilyn Smith, Bryce Brasel, Richard. Flutes: Glenda Lee Smith, Pearl Putnam. Saxophones: Beverly Gilbreath, Donna Lahar, Fern Cue.

SECOND ROW:

Cornets: Eldon Argotsinger, Dennis Lochmiller, Maurice Putnam. Clarinets: Joan Riddle, Alice McDonald, Arlen Petersen. Saxophones: Berdette Hard, Carmen Smith, Paul Leslie.

THIRD ROW:

Cornets: Dorthey Sharp, Leora Smith, Dale Beam, Lillian Kolln. Clarinets: Frances McGovern, Billy Andersen, Shirley Gorden, Lorraine Kolln. Trombones: Richard Cue, Karen Smith, Connie Ahart. Saxophones: Rita Best, Kay Best, Jackie Garrett.

FOURTH ROW:

Cymbals: Mary Ellen Putnam. Snare Drums: Mary Lou Andersen, Jimmy Brown, Donna Hamblen. Bass Drum: Donna Brown. French Horn: Betty Brown. Baritone: Mary Lou Dierenfield. French Horn: Lloyd Birney. Baritone: Charles Buff. French Horn: Jerry Houston. Tuba: Floy Baughman, George Scott.

Baton Twirlers:

Kay Wright, Wanda Poittven, Bonnie Buff, Janice Kearnes, Judy and Jand Nickelson, Margaret Linderman, Betty Gilbreath, Opal Malone, Neva Cross, Eileen Birney. Mr. Murray Elmore-Instructor.

This is a beginners' band, started in the fall of '50. In three months, we held a winter concert with the band playing a minor role. The public received this with so much pleasure that a concert was held in the spring with the band playing a major role. Several beginning baton twirlers started out in the fall along with the band. They also performed at the spring concert. All in all this has been a very successful year and we hope to have an even better and bigger band next year.

The Trio and Sextet participated in winter and spring concerts, and sang at several functions around town. They attended the small groups' contest at Onawa.

Girls' Trio

Glenda Lee Smith
Karen Smith
Fern Cue

Girls' Sextet

The girls' Glee Club participated in both winter and spring concerts and attended the spring festival at Denison. They also attended the music contest at Battlecreek.

Junior Class Play

"The Daffy Dills"

The Daffy Dills was a comedy in three acts, given under the splendid direction of Mrs. Walters. Mr. Dill marries to the disgust of the family who try to make it miserable for Mr. Dill. Maud Muddox, a friend of Grandma Dill's, comes for a visit. The family likes her from the start. At the end, much to the surprise of the family, Maud turns out to be Mrs. Dill and Mrs. Dill is Maud.

Senior Class Play

"Sally Lou"

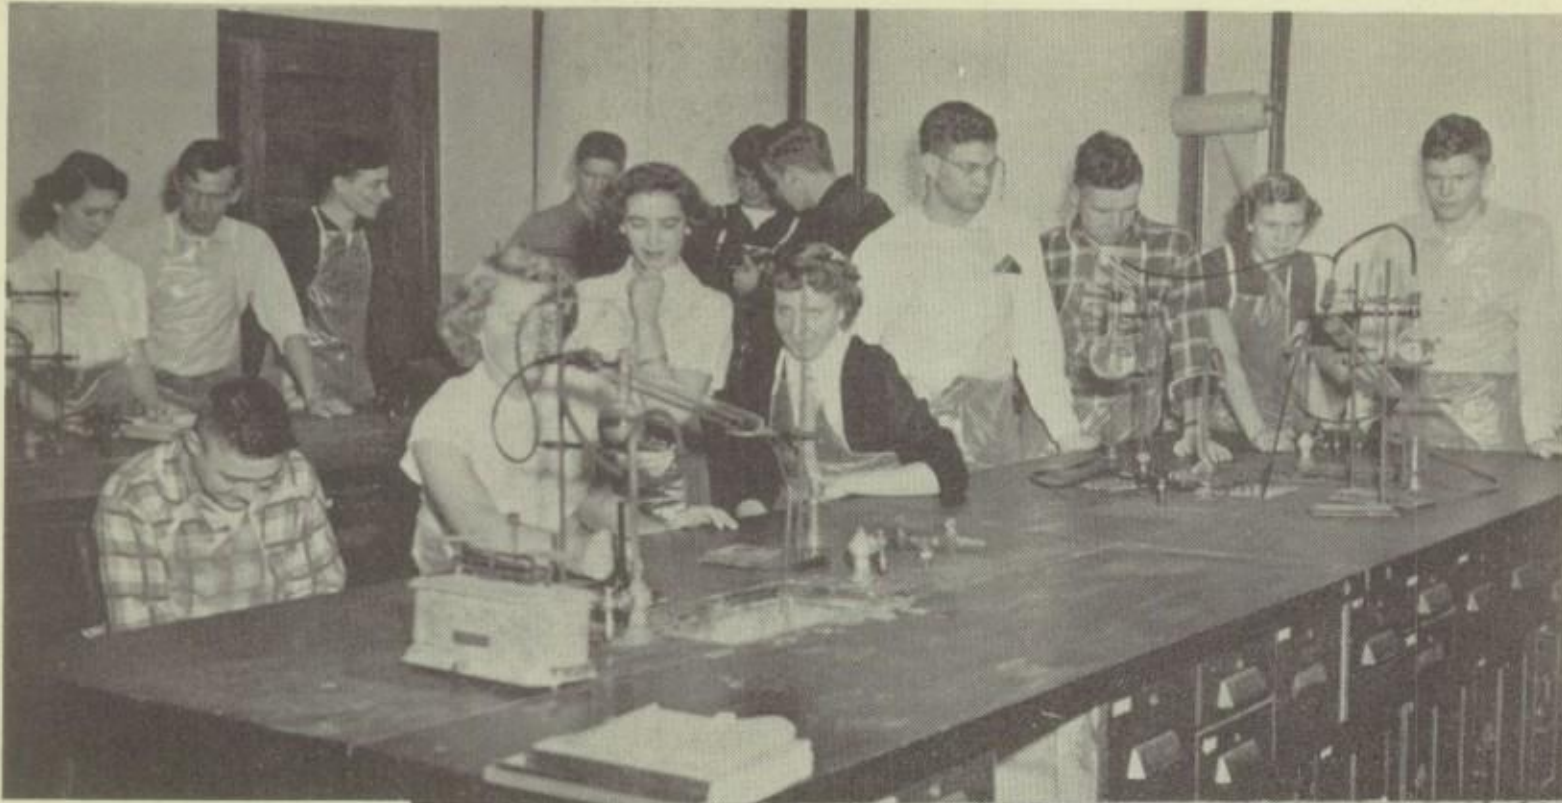

Sally Lou Comstock has inherited a fortune! But there's a catch; she must be married in order to collect. Her uncle, who is to share the fortune, discovers that the problem of finding a husband for Sally Lou is more than he bargained for. All the eligible bachelors seem to regard Sally Lou as slow poison, and her indifference to men doesn't help the situation.

Finally, a likely prospect is snared only to have him disappear under "unusual" circumstances.

Her problems are finally solved, but not without the entrance of a British nobleman, a newspaper reporter and a professional gangster, to say nothing of Sally Lou's queer relatives.
